

ACTUAL DEVELOPMENTS IN THE FIELD OF ADMINISTRATIVE AND CONSTITUTIONAL JUSTICE

The Faculty of Law of ELTE University
Budapest will convene an international conference with the aim to discuss the recent developments in the realm of administrative and constitutional justice

26–27 May 2022

ELTE Aula Magna

(1053 Budapest, Egyetem tér 1–3., 1st floor)

This section of the conference is registered at the Hungarian Bar Association's Lawyers' Advanced Training with 8 credit points.

ELTE | LAW

PROJECT
FINANCED FROM THE NRDI FUND

Mecenatúra

PROGRAMME

Registration form

26 May 2022

13.00–14.45:

- | Welcome message
- | The Transformation of Administrative Justice in the Ecological State Governed by the Rule of Law (Karl-Peter Sommermann)
- | Appointments of judges to the administrative judiciary from European and national perspectives (Andrzej Skoczylas – Wojciech Piątek)
- | Constitutional complaints by state organs? (Bernadette Somody)

15.00–16.30:

- | Fair administrative court trial during and after the COVID-19 PANDEMIC (Andrzej Paduch)
- | Peculiarities of service in administrative court proceedings with a large number of participants (Matúš Radosa – Kristína Slámková – Matej Horvat)
- | Recent modifications of the administrative remedy system in Hungary – more or less effective judicial protection? (Krisztina Rozsnyai)
- | Discussion

ACTUAL DEVELOPMENTS IN THE FIELD OF ADMINISTRATIVE AND CONSTITUTIONAL JUSTICE

27 May 2022

09:30–11.00:

| Cutting off the heads of the Hydra - Current reforms in German administrative procedural law (Thomas Mann)

| Judicial review of Automated Administrative Acts (Igor Gontarz)

| Preventing Harm: Interim Protection as an Aspect of Effective Judicial Protection (Denisa Skládalová)

| Right to an effective remedy? – Electoral remedies of national minorities before administrative courts in Hungary (Balázs Kiss)

| Discussion

11.15–12.45:

| Effective judicial protection under the EU Charter: the Hungarian experience (Mónika Papp)

| Preliminary reference on validity and the national court: what contribution to the legality of the EU and effective judicial protection in EU? (Emilie Chevalier)

| Rule of law and decentralized enforcement: the role of trust in EU antitrust (Csongor István Nagy)

| Discussion

14.00–15.30:

- | Fighting for cleaner air? - Air quality plans before EU and national courts
(László Szegedi)
- | Judicial review of statutory public bodies' regulations (Marcell Kárász)
- | Judicial review and legitimate expectations (Csaba Molnár)
- | The role of the autonomy concept in the practise of the constitutional protection of the state entities - with particular regard to the right of the municipalities to file a petition to the Hungarian Constitutional Court
(Dominika Hollós)
- | Discussion

ELTE | LAW

PROJECT
FINANCED FROM THE NRDI FUND

Mecenatúra