

CONSTITUTIONAL COMPARISON BY CONSTITUTIONAL COURTS – TWELVE OBSERVATIONS FROM TWELVE YEARS OF CONSTITUTIONAL PRACTICE

Public lecture held by Prof. Dr. Dr. h.c. mult. Andreas Voßkuhle on the occasion of his inauguration
as honorary professor of ELTE University

20 October 2022, 2.30 p.m.
ELTE Faculty of Law, Aula Magna
(1053 Budapest, Egyetem tér 1-3.)

Andreas Voßkuhle is one of the most influential scholars of public law in Germany. Since 1999, he holds a chair for public law at the Albert Ludwig University Freiburg and directs the „Institut für Staatswissenschaft und Rechtsphilosophie“. In May 2008, he was elected as judge and Vice-President of the German Federal Constitutional Court. From May 2010 to June 2020, he was the President of that court. He was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by the ELTE Senate in 2021.

This event is part of the series: Budapest Lectures on European and International Law.

RSVP: Registration to the event is required. Please register here.

ELTE | LAW