

Title	Regulation of digital industries
Lecturer(s):	dr. Virág Balogh
Brief description	The course aims at introducing the basic concepts of market regulation in the telco markets and in the case of digital platforms via the most recent EU legislation and respective case law.
Schedule	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Introduction to market regulation, basic economic principles</li><li>2. Telco/digital platforms and public service (concept of universal services)</li><li>3. Introduction to the basics of digital technology</li><li>4. Telco regulation I.: Market analysis, the concept of significant market power on telco markets</li><li>5. Telco regulation II.: Spectrum policy and regulation</li><li>6. Telco regulation III.: Competition law</li><li>7. Telco regulation IV.: Competition law</li><li>8. Telco regulation V.: Consumer protection</li><li>9. Digital markets I.: Competition law</li><li>10. Digital markets II: Consumer protection</li><li>11. Digital markets III.: Emerging regulation (Digital Services Act and Digital Markets Act)</li><li>12. New horizons of telco / digital regulation: Digital Networks Act, cybersecurity, Data Act, AI Act</li></ol>
Materials/Recommended readings	Recommended reading material will be provided during the course.
Assessment/Exam	Assessment will be based on a 12 000 character essay to be turned in by May 28, 2023. Topics of essays should be picked of the following list or (in the case of special interest in another relevant topic) should be indicated via email/teams. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Market failures that serve as a basis for the regulation of telco/digital sectors</li><li>2. Market squeeze practice of the CJEU</li><li>3. Abuse of dominance and significant market power on telco sectors</li><li>4. Merger practice of the Hungarian Competition Authority / EU Commission in telco/digital sectors</li><li>5. An overview of the history of telco regulation within the EU</li></ol>

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>6. An overview of open internet regulation / case law based on either Hungarian or CJEU case-law</li><li>7. Spectrum regulation based on Hungarian regulation / the EECC</li><li>8. The developments of telco consumer law based on the provisions of the EECC</li><li>9. History / current framework of universal service regulation</li><li>10. The most important provisions of the EECC</li><li>11. Antitrust case law of the CJEU in the digital sector</li><li>12. Consumer protection in the digital sector</li><li>13. Recent digital legislation of the EU</li><li>14. Assessment of the DSA / DMA (either pointing to the most important provisions or one topic of interest)</li></ol>
--	---