

Title	Regulation of digital markets
Lecturer(s):	dr. Virág Balogh Department of Administrative Law (ELTE) e-mail: balogh.virag@ajk.elte.hu
Brief description	The course aims at introducing the basic concepts of market regulation in the telco markets and in the case of digital platforms via the most recent EU legislation and respective case law.
Schedule	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Introduction to market regulation, basic economic principles</li><li>2. Telco/digital platforms and public service (concept of universal services)</li><li>3. Introduction to the basics of digital technology</li><li>4. History of telco regulation</li><li>5. Market analysis, the concept of significant market power on telco markets</li><li>6. Spectrum policy and regulation</li><li>7. Competition law aspects I.</li><li>8. Competition law aspects II.</li><li>9. Consumer policy aspects I.</li><li>10. Consumer policy aspects II.</li><li>11. Digital Services Act and Digital Markets Act</li><li>12. Evaluation of course</li></ol>
Materials/Recommended readings	Recommended reading material will be given during the course.

Assessment/Exam	The assessment will be based on a short essay to be turned in by mid-June. Possible topics for the essays will be handed out on the first week of the semester.
------------------------	---