

Title	Current challenges in international, European and Hungarian refugee law
Lecturers:	Dr. Nóra CSEKE lawyer, Court of Justice of the European Union nora.csk@gmail.com
Brief description	The course gives an overview of the normative framework and recent challenges in the field of refugee law. It provides the ‘technical’ tools to understand and critically analyse ongoing legal debates.
Schedule	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Asylum in international law (history, 1951 Geneva Convention)2. Asylum in ECHR case law (articles 3 and 13, article 4 of Protocol n 4)3. EU asylum law (historical background, current legal framework)4. Asylum in CJEU case law (qualification, reception conditions and return directive)5. Entry of asylum seekers in the EU (related visa policy, articles 4 and 18 of the Charter, CJEU case law, the new Pact on Migration and Asylum 2020)6. The Dublin system (historical background, general principles, hierarchy of criteria, discretionary clauses, obligations of responsible Member state)7. ECHR and CJEU case law in Dublin issues (determination of responsible Member state, mutual trust and its limits)8. Asylum procedures (procedures directive and CJEU case law)9. Effective remedies against asylum decisions (procedures directive and CJEU case law)10. Detention of asylum seekers (ECHR and CJEU case law)11. National implementation issues, preparation for the exam, case solving12. Written exam
Materials/Recommended readings	ECHR and CJEU case law, slides and other materials presented and discussed, articles recommended during the course.
Assessment/Exam	Written exam The active participation in class discussions will be taken into account.