

ELI Hungarian Hub | Faculty of Law, ELTE
Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence
14 September 2018 | Budapest | Hungary
1st International Forum

Programme

- 09.00 – 09.15 Welcome speech and establishment of ELI Hungarian Hub
Miklós Király, Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of International Private Law and European Economic Law
- 09.15 – 09.30 Goal and mission of ELI
Christiane Wendehorst, Professor, President of ELI, Vienna University, Institute for Civil Law
- 09.30 – 10.30 Keynote speech: Discovering the impact and effects of Brexit on both EU Law and UK Law – in theory and in practice
Steven Peers, Professor, School of Law, University of Essex
- 10.30 – 10.50 Discussion
Chair: Pál Sonnevend, Vice Dean of the Faculty of Law, ELTE Faculty of Law
- 10.50 – 11.20 Coffee break
- 11.20 – 11.35 European Criminal Law, the ne bis in idem principle and Brexit
Balázs Gellér, Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of Criminal Law
- 11.35 – 11.50 The future relationship between the UK and the EU following Brexit in the field of Judicial Cooperation in Criminal Matters' – forms of cooperation
Petra Jeney, Associate Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of International Public Law
- 11.50 – 12.05 Brexit and Security: What about Strategic Intelligence Information Sharing after the UK's Leave
Chiara Graziani, PhD student, University of Genoa, Comparative Constitutional Law
- 12.05 – 12.25 Discussion
Chair: Imre Németh, Associate Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law
- 12.25 – 13.00 Buffet lunch

- 13.00 – 13.15 Migration related issues regarding Brexit from free movement to asylum
Ágnes Tóttős PhD, JHA Counsellor for Asylum and Migration Affairs, Representation of Hungary to the EU
- 13.15 – 13.30 Patients' mobility after Brexit in EU-UK context
Éva Lukács Gellérné, Associate Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of International Private Law and European Economic Law
- 13.30 – 13.45 Brexit and cross-border working patterns
Gábor Kártyás, Associate Professor, PPKE University, Department of Labour Law
- 13.45 – 14.00 Preserving Intra-Corporate Transfers in the future relationship between UK and the EU following Brexit
Sára Fekete, PhD student, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of International Private Law and European Economic Law
- 14.00 – 14.20 Discussion
Chair: Steven Peers, Professor, School of Law, University of Essex
- 14.20 – 14.40 Coffee break
- 14.40 – 14.55 Imperial fantasies and the illusion of a global and unfettered island
Csongor Nagy, Professor, University of Szeged, Department of Private International Law
- 14.55 – 15.10 Brexit and the UK's membership in the WTO
Balázs Horváthy, Research Fellow, HAS CCS, Institute for Legal Studies
- 15.10 – 15.25 The effect of Brexit on UK state aid and subsidies policy: a brewing trade war?
Tamás Kende, Associate Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of International Public Law
- 15.25 – 15.40 Generalised deficiencies as regards the rule of law in Member States: Finding legal answers to legal questions
János Bóka, Associate Professor, National University of Public Service, Faculty of International and European Studies
- 15.40 – 16.00 Discussion
Chair: Réka Somssich, Vice Dean of the Faculty of Law, ELTE Faculty of Law
- 16.00 Closing of the Forum
Miklós Király, Professor, ELTE Faculty of Law, Department of International Private Law and European Economic Law

Venue

The Forum will be hosted by the Faculty of Law, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest. The Forum will be held in Aula Magna of the Faculty of Law.