

Marcell Koncsik

Marcell Koncsik is a law student in his second year of education at Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, Budapest. He participated in the 13th ICC International Commercial Mediation Competition in Paris, organized by the International Chamber of Commerce in February 2018. He also participated in two mediation conferences organized in Budapest. Besides public international law, his main field of interest is civil law. Marcell is currently conducting research in the field of international intellectual property law and the extraterritorial applicability of human rights conventions. The 2019 Jessup Team won 1st Place at the European Jessup Friendly Rounds 2019 (Lisbon) out of 17 participating teams and Marcell won 3rd Best Oralist Award out of the approx. 70 contestants. He is fluent in English and German.

Gábor Bazsó

Gábor Bazsó is a law student in his third year at Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, Budapest. He has spent a year studying in Long Island, New York as an ASSIST scholar during his high school years. He was awarded the National Scholarship for Law Students for Excellence by the Ministry of Justice (IM Nemzeti Kiválósági Jogászösztöndíj) in 2016. He is a member of ELTE Bibó István College for Advanced Studies and the Erasmus Student Network at Eötvös Loránd University. In 2018, he was awarded the prize for the runner-up Best Oralist at the Telders International Law Moot Court Competition out of more than 100 contestants. His areas of interest are public international law and international investment law. He wrote his course essay about diplomatic protection in international investment law. The 2019 Jessup Team won 1st Place at the European Jessup Friendly Rounds 2019 (Lisbon) out of 17 participating teams and Gabor won 5th Best Oralist Award out of the approx. 70 contestants being the only agent pleading both as applicant and respondent. He is fluent in English and French, conversant in German, learnt Spanish.

Vanessa Szép

Vanessa Szép is a law student in her fifth year at Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, Budapest. She participates in the 'French and Hungarian Maîtrise of Law' (Master 1) course of Université Panthéon-Assas (Paris II). Besides public international law, she is interested in EU law and international arbitration. She obtained a certificate of Université Panthéon-Assas and the Civil Law Initiative in the field of international and European contract law in 2017. Vanessa earned experience at moot courts, including William C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot Court, Concours de Plaidoirie Francophone, and Telders International Law Moot Court Competition where her team was ranked 5th as Respondent. Vanessa worked as an intern at the Hungarian Ministry of Justice and for Burai-Kovács, Perkali, Stanka, Szikla and Partners Law Firm. She obtained the Hajnóczy Award from Eötvös Loránd University for her activity in the Scientific Student Association and for her outstanding result in international moot courts in 2018. The 2019 Jessup Team won 1st Place at the European Jessup Friendly Rounds 2019 (Lisbon) out of 17 participating teams. She speaks English and French.

Zolta Buda

Zolta Buda is a law student in his fifth year of education at Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, Budapest. He participated in the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition in 2017 and 2018 and was ranked as the 15th Best Oralist out of 600 contestants at the International Rounds held in Washington D.C. in 2017. In 2018, his team received the Alona E. Evans Award and the Hardy C. Dillard Award for achieving the absolute highest score with their written memorials. Besides public international law, his main fields of interest are civil law and civil procedure. He has been a member of the Scientific Students' Association of the Civil Law Department of ELTE in the academic year of 2015/16, and a member of the Freshmen Mentor Program from 2015 to 2017. Zolta wrote his thesis about the obligation of nuclear disarmament in international law. He has worked as an intern for Oppenheim Law Firm and Dentons Réczicza Law Firm. The 2019 Jessup Team won 1st Place at the European Jessup Friendly Rounds 2019 (Lisbon) out of 17 participating teams and Zolta won 1st Best Oralist Award out of the approx. 70 contestants. Zolta speaks English and French.

COACHES OF THE ELTE JESSUP TEAM:

Dr. Gábor Kajtár LL.M. (Cantab), Ph.D.

Senior Lecturer at the Department of International Law (ELTE)

Dr. Katalin Sulyok LL.M. (Harvard), Ph.D.

Assistant Professor at the Department of International Law (ELTE)