COMPETITION LAW MOOT

KING'S College
LONDON

Are you interested in EU Competition Law and Moot Courts? Are you ready to embark on one of the most challenging and fulfilling experiences of your university years, while also developing an array of valuable skills furthering your future career in law? Are you prepared to enhance your advocacy, legal research and writing skills and to work more closely with and learn from your peers?

Then it's time for you to start mooting!

The Department of Private International Law and European Economic Law is organizing a team and application is open to the ELTE University Team! The Moot Court is organised by the King's College London. In the spring semester an optional preparatory course will be held for the team members.

Applicants need to demonstrate a high level of both oral and written legal English. Those with prior knowledge of EU or domestic competition law and/or prior moot court experience in English enjoy an advantage. Applications are to be sent to Andor Cserép, student assistant of the Department via email (andorcserep@gmail.com), and should entail a one-page English language CV.

Application deadline: November 20, 2020!
