COMPETITION LAW MOOT

KING'S College
LONDON

Apply now to join the World Champion team of the Eötvös Loránd University to take part in the Herbert Smith Freehills Competition Law Moot Court, organized by King's College London!

- Are you interested in EU Competition Law, cartels, abuse of dominance committed by large international corporations, and the business aspects of the corporate world?
- Are you ready to embark on one of the most challenging and fulfilling experiences of your university years?
- Are you prepared to enhance your advocacy, legal research and writing skills, and to work more closely with and learn from your peers and teachers in a close relationship?

Then it's time for you to start mootting! Take the opportunity to develop an array of valuable skills furthering your future career in law!

Application deadline: October 4, 2022!

Applicants need to demonstrate a high level of both oral and written legal English. Those with prior knowledge of EU or domestic competition law and/or prior moot court experience in English enjoy an advantage. Applications are to be sent to Mónika Papp (mpapp@ajk.elte.hu), Department of Private International and European Economic Law and should entail a one-page English language CV. After the application process, in the months of October and November, the team members will receive general training for the Moot Court, which perfectly set them up for the drafting and oral phases of the competition. Moot court meetings in the Fall Semester will be held mainly online on Teams.
